Springtime in Provence · Burgundy · Beaujolais
Cruising the Rhône and Saône Rivers
aboard the Exclusively Chartered, Deluxe Small River Ship m.s. Amadeus Provence
May 17 to 25, 2017
Dear Alumni, Parents and Friends:

Join us for this exclusive, nine-day French sojourn in Provence and the Burgundy and Beaujolais wine regions en printemps (in springtime), the best time of year to visit, when the crimson poppies, colorful primrose, purple irises, almond blossoms and cherry trees bloom to herald in a new season. In the sun-kissed south of France, explore ancient Marseille, a vibrant city named the 2013 European Cultural Capital, before cruising for six nights from Provençal Arles to historic Lyon along the fabled Rivers Rhône and Saône aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe M.S. AMADEUS PROVENCE, launching in 2017—the newest addition to the AMADEUS FLEET.

Begin with one night’s accommodation in the beautifully restored Five-Star INTERCONTINENTAL MARSEILLE HÔTEL-DIEU, a distinguished building with more than 800 years of rich history. During your cruise, dock in the heart of each port town and visit six UNESCO World Heritage sites, including the wonderfully preserved Roman Amphitheater in Arles, the medieval Papal Palace of Avignon and the Roman city of Orange. Tour the legendary 15th-century Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune, famous for its intricate and colorful tiled roof, and picturesque Lyon, France’s gastronomique gateway. Enjoy an excursion to the Beaujolais vineyards for a private tour, world-class piano concert and wine tasting at the Château Montmelas, guided by the châtelaine, and to the Burgundy region for an exclusive visit and tour of Château de Rully, a medieval fortress among the vineyards and the ancestral home of your guide, Count de Ternay, since the 12th century.

A perennial favorite, this exclusive travel program is the quintessential Provençal experience and an excellent value featuring a comprehensive itinerary through the south of France when its abundant flora blooms back to life. I encourage you to book now while Early Booking Savings and space are still available!

Sincerely,

Kelly Meachum McConnico (’00)

TOUTES LES GLOIRES DE LA FRANCE

On the façade of the royal Palace of Versailles is the inscription “A Toutes les Gloires de la France.” In 1837, when King Louis-Philippe dedicated its galleries to “all the glories of France,” the most outstanding minds and figures of the arts, literature, science and politics of the time were in attendance—Victor Hugo, Honoré de Balzac, Alexandre Dumas, Eugène Delacroix—to celebrate the extraordinary contributions the French have made to the Western world.

Today, all the glories of France lie in wait for your discovery during this springtime sojourn—one of medieval bridges spanning the Rhône, in abundant Beaujolais and Burgundy vineyards and their stately châteaux, in the enchanting quarters of Lyon, in the Arles café that inspired Vincent van Gogh and in the preservation of Provence’s extraordinary Roman ruins, where great history and beauty have been intertwined for centuries. Experience firsthand the remarkable achievements in fine art, cuisine, fashion, architecture, literature, cinema and joie de vivre that have made France so influential across the globe.

Marseille, France

The sun-kissed city of Marseille, named the 2013 European Cultural Capital, has experienced a revitalizing renaissance and showcases 26 centuries of history and groundbreaking architecture. See the Vieux (Old) Port and the Panier district, one of the most ancient quarters in all of France, and visit the magnificent Notre Dame de la Garde cathedral, perched on a hilltop at the highest point of the city.

Arles

Few places on Earth can match the distinctive joie de vivre of Arles. This archetypal Provençal city is home to several of the world’s most majestic Roman monuments, all designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit the magnificently restored 20,000-spectator Amphitheater, built in the first century B.C., and the 12th-century Cathedral of St. Trophime with its fascinating Last Judgment-themed portal, a superb example of Romanesque sculpture. Nearby, the subject of Vincent van Gogh’s 1888 painting, The Café Terrace at Night, is still open for business on the Place du Forum.

Avignon

The center of Western Christendom from 1309, when Pope Clement V moved the papal capital here until the Great Schism with Rome (1378), Avignon, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is an enchanting ancient city built on the banks of the Rhône. On a walking tour, visit the grandiose Palais des Papes (Papal Palace), the largest château-fort built in Europe during the Gothic era and the primary testament to Avignon’s golden age. Walk to the splendid Garden of the Popes and the Rocher des Doms, a hilltop park offering spectacular panoramic views of the Rhône Valley. At the river’s edge, see the remaining four arches of one of the finest surviving examples of medieval fortifications, the Pont Saint-Bénézet (Pont d’Avignon), the only bridge built across the Rhône during the Middle Ages.

Orange
Traverse the beautiful French countryside, passing springtime blooms and vibrantly hued stucco houses accented by blue shutters, en route to the Roman city of Orange and its awe-inspiring UNESCO World Heritage sites. Visit the well-preserved ancient Roman Theater, still hosting performances today, and see the Triumphal Arch, built in the late first century as a tribute to Augustus Caesar and a symbol of Roman imperial glory.

Pont du Gard
Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Pont du Gard, an exquisitely built 2000-year-old Roman aqueduct that once supplied over nine million gallons of water daily to the city of Nîmes and was constructed of stones made to fit together seamlessly without mortar, cleverly using arches to support the weight.

Tourron and Tain-l’Hermitage
Facing one another across the Rhône are the twin towns of Tourron, one of France’s oldest medieval sites, and Tain-l’Hermitage, surrounded by the rolling, majestic vineyards and granite slopes of Hermitage. In Tourron, see impressive examples of architecture dating from the 11th, 14th and 16th centuries, and the 16th-century Lycée Gabriel-Fauré, the oldest secondary school in France. In Tain-l’Hermitage, enjoy a specially arranged artisan chocolate tasting at the world-renowned Valrhona shop. This region of the Ardèche département is said to be the birthplace of the Syrah grape variety, also known as Shiraz, and for its vineyards that produce both red and white Hermitage, the finest and most expensive of all Côtes du Rhône wines.

Vienne
A delightful river town located at a scenic bend in the River Rhône, Vienne features a trove of architectural treasures few other towns in southern France can equal, including exquisite Roman ruins and an ornate medieval cathedral.

Famous for the intricately patterned and brilliantly hued glazed tile roof of its inner courtyard, the Hôtel-Dieu in Beaune functioned as a hospice for the needy between 1443 and 1971 and, today, operates as a museum.
The Romans highly valued this town’s strategic location and endowed it with some of the finest Classical antiquities in France; amongst these are the nearly perfectly preserved Temple d’Auguste et de Livie, built in 25 B.C. in honor of Rome’s greatest emperor, and the Théâtre Romain, a beautifully restored amphitheater at the foot of Mont Pipet that seats up to 13,000 spectators and is still in use today. The town’s most notable medieval landmark is the impressive Cathédrale de St-Maurice, which was constructed between the 12th and 16th centuries and combines classic elements of Romanesque and Gothic design.

Lyon
A UNESCO World Heritage site, the captivating city of Lyon is located at the confluence of the Rivers Rhône and Saône. From lofty Fourvière Colline (Praying Hill), enjoy views of the ornate 19th-century Basilica of Notre Dame and then walk the tree-lined streets of the restored Vieux (Old) Lyon, where well-preserved Gothic and Renaissance mansions attest to the wealth of Lyon’s long-standing silk industry. Stroll through the ancient quarter of St. Jean and explore the unique, often hidden traboules—narrow, covered pedestrian passageways.

Beaune
Amidst the idyllic Burgundy countryside, visit the enchanting Château de Rully, a picturesque medieval fortress surrounded by Chardonnay vineyards. Count Raoul de Ternay will greet you and guide you on a private tour of the estate, his family’s ancestral home since the 12th century. Continue to Beaune, founded in the fifth century B.C. and the longtime capital of Burgundy wines, located in the famous Côte d’Or département.

Cluny
In Burgundy’s Saône-et-Loire département amid green vineyards growing lush at this time of year, visit the distinguished Benedictine Cluny Abbey (A.D. 910), one of the great centers of medieval Christianity. The beautiful and austere remnants of the sprawling abbey complex still provide a fascinating glimpse of what was, until the construction of St. Peter’s in Rome, the largest Christian basilica in the world.

Beaujolais
From the lovely vineyards of Beaujolais, the “land of the golden stones,” France’s youngest and fruitiest wines are cultivated. Located along the banks of the Saône River, this internationally acclaimed wine region has been known to produce more red wine than the Burgundy vineyards of Chablis, Côte d’Or, Côte Chalonnaise and Mâconnais combined. In the verdant heart of Beaujolais, visit the 10th-century Château de Montmelas.

Châtelaine Delphine d’Harcourt will greet you upon arrival and guide your exclusive tour through her home. Experience a private, specially arranged performance of fortepiano music by an internationally recognized pianist living in Burgundy and enjoy a wine tasting with local canapés.

Here, tour the legendary 15th-century Burgundian Renaissance-style Hôtel-Dieu, one of the best examples of 15th-century French architecture, famous for its iconic, colorful tiled roof and once a charitable hospital. Enjoy time at leisure in the historic, quintessential wine-producing town of Chalon-sur-Saône. Explore lively Place Saint-Vincent, dominated by the Romanesque cathedral and lined with quaint cafés, specialty shops and local wine cellars populated by chic patrons enjoying the spring weather of southern France. Visit the museum dedicated to the inventor of the photograph, Joseph Nicéphore-Niépce, or stroll across the picturesque Saint-Laurent bridge.
The meticulous crafting of the deluxe M.S. AMADEUS PROVENCE, launching in 2017, sets new standards in design and technology and features the comforts of a refined floating hotel. This exclusively chartered ship offers 70 Suites (284 square feet) and Staterooms (from 172 square feet), among the most spacious of any European river ship. All Suites include a private balcony, and select Staterooms feature a unique floor-to-ceiling panoramic window with an upper half that can automatically lower to create a stylish French balcony. Accommodations have two twin beds (convertible to one queen-size bed), a private bathroom with shower, individual climate control, walk-in wardrobe, satellite telephone and television, writing desk, safe and hair dryer.

Freshly prepared continental meals featuring local ingredients are served in single, unassigned seatings in the ship’s delightfully scenic Panorama Restaurant and include early-risers’ coffee, buffet breakfast and lunch, afternoon tea, four-course dinner and late-evening snack. Complimentary wine and beer are served with lunch and dinner.

Inviting public facilities are spacious and include the Amadeus Club, Panorama Bar, Lido Bar, an outdoor river terrace, boutique, fitness studio, massage room, hair salon and Sun Deck with swimming pool, lounge chairs and shaded awnings. Complimentary audio headsets are available for all shore excursions. Complimentary onboard bicycles are available when the ship is in port for passengers to ride along riverside paths. The ship has an elevator, and laundry service and Wi-Fi Internet are available. There is no doctor aboard ship.

The English-speaking, international crew provides warm hospitality. The M.S. AMADEUS PROVENCE meets the highest safety standards and is one of the only European river ships to have been awarded the “Green Certificate” of environmental preservation.

The architectural crown jewel of Marseille is the Five-Star INTERCONTINENTAL MARSEILLE HÔTEL-DIEU. Located in the heart of the city, this spectacular, historic property opened as a Five-Star hotel in 2013, the year Marseille was named the European Capital of Culture. Enjoy incredible views of the hilltop Notre Dame de la Gare cathedral across the Old Port of Marseille. The HÔTEL-DIEU’s original façade and double stairways featuring intricate wrought-iron work are registered national historic monuments of France. Replete with old world Provençal ambiance, the hotel features two restaurants, including the Michelin-starred Alcyone, an expansive outdoor terrace, a swimming pool, sauna, full-service spa and state-of-the-art fitness center.
